SUBJECT: BRIEFING THE HUNGARIANS ON U.S. DESIRED OUTCOMES
FROM THE LONDON CONFERENCE

REF: STATE 06355

¶1. (SBU) POL/ECON Counselor briefed Peter Szataray, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs' Director for Security Policy and Non-Proliferation, January 25 on desired U.S. outcomes from the January 28 London Conference on Afghanistan. Szataray, who is accompanying Foreign Minister Balazs to the conference and the subsequent NATO Defense Ministerial meeting in Istanbul, welcomed the London conference as a practical means to enhance international coordination on Afghanistan, noting that it would "bring together all the players." Hungarian objectives coincided with those of the United States in terms of outcomes from the conference, Szataray said.

¶2. (SBU) On specific points, Szataray agreed that while reintegration of insurgents was very complex, it had to be pursued. "Without this, there is no solution," he stated. The U.S. plan of step-by-step, gradual transition of provinces to an Afghan lead represented the right approach, Szataray said, adding, "The better the preparations, the better the result."

¶3. (SBU) Szataray said the Hungarians hoped they would have the opportunity to take the floor at the conference. While understanding that with 77 delegations this might not prove feasible, Szataray said that, having furnished Provincial Reconstruction and Operational Mentor and Liaison teams, Hungary believed it had something to contribute.
